TERRY DONAHUE
(UCLA '67)
Head Football Coach

When it comes to winning bowl games, no one does it better than Terry Donahue. The UCLA head coach enters the 1989 Mobil Cotton Bowl with the opportunity to become the first coach in college football history to win a bowl game in seven consecutive seasons.

Donahue and UCLA have won a bowl game in each of the last six years — 1983 Rose, 1984 Rose, 1985 Fiesta, 1986 Rose, 1986 Freedom and 1987 Aloha — four of those on New Year's Day. Only two other coaches (Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd and Alabama's Paul 'Bear' Bryant) and four other schools (Georgia Tech, Nebraska, USC and Alabama) have ever won bowls in six consecutive years but no one has ever done it in seven straight seasons.

Donahue, who is also one of just three coaches to win a New Year's Day bowl in four consecutive years (Dodd and Bryant are the others), has been successful throughout his UCLA career. The Mobil Cotton Bowl is his eighth straight bowl trip, the longest current streak in the Pacific-10 Conference, and the 10th in his 13-year career.

Over the last seven years, Donahue has risen to the top of his profession. In that span, he has won six straight bowl games, compiled a record of 62-17-4 (.771), won or shared four Pac-10 titles and finished in the wire service Top Ten four times (a victory in the Mobil Cotton Bowl would give him a fifth Top Ten finish). Earlier this season, he led UCLA to its first No. 1 ranking since November of 1967.

Here is a list of Donahue's most impressive accomplishments:

A career record of 107-38-7 (.727). His 107 victories are the most in UCLA history and his winning percentage of .727 ranks seventh among active coaches with at least five years of service at the Division IA level;

Six straight (shooting for seven) bowl victories, including four consecutive New Year's Day bowl victories — the 1983, 1984 and 1986 Rose Bowls and the 1985 Fiesta Bowl. This feat (four straight New Year's victories) had been accomplished just three other times in collegiate history — Georgia Tech in 1952-56 (five), Nebraska in 1971-75 (five) and Alabama in 1978-81 (four);

Owns 26.4% of UCLA's football victories (107 of 405);

Ten bowl appearances, including eight straight (the longest current string in the Pac-10), in 13 years, more than any coach in school history. Donahue owns a bowl record of 6-2-1;

A perfect 5-0 record in the Rose Bowl — 1-0 as a player, 1-0 as an assistant coach and 3-0 as a head coach;

70 victories in Pac-10 play. He is tied with former USC coach John McKay for second place on the all-time league victory list, one behind Washington's Don James, who has coached one more year and seven more games than Donahue. The Bruin coach has compiled a record of 70-24-4 (.735) with four titles and six second-place finishes in 13 years;

A record of 62-17-4 (.771) over the last seven years, best in the Pac-10. In league play, the Bruins have also compiled the best winning percentage (.769 — 40-11-3) while winning or sharing four titles;

A winning percentage of .759 (78-23-5) in the 1980s and a Pac-10 percentage of .754 (50-15-4) over the same span;

Top Ten rankings in four of the last six years (UCLA is ranked in the Top Ten of both polls entering the Mobil Cotton Bowl) and Top 20 rankings in the other two seasons. The Bruins finished fifth on both polls in 1982, ninth on one poll (AP) and 10th on the other in 1984, sixth on one poll (UPI) and seventh on the other in 1985 and ninth on one poll (AP) and 11th on the other last season. In 1983, UCLA was ranked 13th and it was ranked 14th by both polls in 1986. Earlier this season (Oct. 17 through Oct. 29), UCLA was ranked No. 1 in the nation for the first time since 1967;

Two of UCLA's three 10-victory seasons (1982 and 1987). A victory in the Mobil Cotton Bowl would give UCLA back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in school history;

Seven seasons of at least nine victories, including four of the last five, an accomplishment unmatched by any other Bruin coach;

An NCAA record of 204 consecutive scoring games (1971 to present);

Football News' Coach of the Year in 1982 and Man of the Year in 1983.

Donahue's association with UCLA began in 1964 when he made the varsity as a non-scholarship player. Following a redshirt year, he started at defensive tackle for two seasons, helping UCLA to a record of 17-3-1 and a victory in the 1966 Rose Bowl.

Following graduation, Donahue landed a job on the staff of former UCLA assistant coach Pepper Rodgers at the University of Kansas. Four years later, he returned to his alma mater when Rodgers was named head coach of the Bruins and spent five seasons as an assistant — three under Rodgers and two under Dick Vermeil. When Vermeil left for the NFL following a victory in the 1976 Rose Bowl, Donahue became head man.

During his first six seasons, Donahue led his team to 45 victories and three bowl games. Twice during those six years, the Bruins won nine games and twice rose to No. 2 on both wire service polls (1976 and 1980).

In 1982, fueled by an aerial attack that produced 10 victories for only the second time in school history, UCLA capped the season by winning the Pac-10 and Rose Bowl titles and finishing fifth on both wire service polls. In 1983, the Bruins rebounded from an 0-3-1 start to win seven of their last eight games, including the 1984 Rose Bowl. In 1984, the Bruins won nine games for the fourth time in Donahue's career and capped the season with a victory in the Fiesta Bowl. In 1985, thanks to a balanced offense and the nation's best defense against the run, the Bruins won their third Rose Bowl in four seasons and finished the year ranked sixth nationally with a record of 9-2-1. In 1986, UCLA won its fifth straight bowl game and defeated crosstown rival USC for the fourth time in five seasons en route to a record of 8-3-1. Last season, the Bruins rode the arm of Troy Aikman and the legs of Gaston Green to a sixth consecutive bowl victory, the third 10-win season in school history and another Top Ten finish.

Donahue, 44, has enjoyed many outstanding victories during his career, including a 28-10 upset of Arizona State in his coaching debut (1976), UCLA's first victory over Washington in Seattle since 1958 (1976), three straight victories over Washington (1976-77-78) to become the first Bruin coach since Red Sanders to accomplish it, a 17-0 shutout against Ohio State in Columbus (1980), UCLA's first-ever victory in Ann Arbor, defeating Michigan 31-27 after trailing 21-0 (1982), a 27-24 victory over defending national champion BYU (1985), a string of four wins (1982-83-84-86) in five years over crosstown rival USC, a 41-28 victory over Nebraska this season and, of course, the Rose Bowl victories against Michigan (1983), Illinois (1984) and Iowa (1986), the Fiesta Bowl triumph (1985), the Freedom Bowl victory (1986) and last year's Aloha Bowl win.

Donahue has been involved with five post-season all-star games — as an assistant at the 1979 Hula Bowl and the 1980 East-West Shrine Game and as the head coach for the West squad in the 1981 Shrine Game and the 1985 and 1988 Hula Bowls. In addition, many of his seniors have the opportunity to play in the various post-season games every year.

No less than 42 of Donahue's former players were listed on the pre-season rosters of National Football League teams. This past April, 10 members of the 1987 Bruins were selected in the NFL Draft, the third-highest total of any school. Eight of the draftees made the opening day rosters, including running backs Gaston Green and James Primus, wide receivers Willie Anderson and Paco Craig, defensive backs James Washington and Dennis Price, linebacker Ken Norton and offensive tackle David Richards. In the last eight drafts, 51 Bruin players have been chosen, including six on the first round and nine more on the next two rounds.

During his 13 seasons, the Los Angeles native has developed 19 first-team All-Americans, including 1988 choices Troy Aikman, Carnell Lake and Darryl Henley, three-time selections Kenny Easley and Jerry Robinson (the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-10 history), two-timer John Lee and one-timers Green, Norton, Don Rogers, Freeman McNeil, Oscar Edwards, Jeff Dankworth, Luis Sharpe and Tim Wrightman. In addition, Donahue has coached UCLA's top two passers (Tom Ramsey and Aikman) and the No. 1 percentage passer (Rick Neuheisel) in school history, as well as the top five career rushers (Green, Freeman McNeil, Wendell Tyler, Theotis Brown and Kevin Nelson) and eight of the top nine career receivers (Mike Sherrard, Karl Dorrell, Cormac Carney, Willie Anderson, Jojo Townsell, Mike Farr, Paul Bergmann and Wrightman) — a graphic illustration of his offensive versatility.

Born on June 24, 1944, Terrence Michael Donahue began his athletic career at Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, starring as a linebacker. After playing freshman football at San Jose State, Donahue returned home, attended a local junior college (he did not play football) and then enrolled at UCLA.

Donahue is married to the former Andrea Sogas, whom he met and married while coaching at Kansas. They are the proud parents of three girls: Nicole Denise, 16; Michele Lynn, 13, and Jennifer Erin, 9.

KEY OFFENSIVE PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES
(In Alphabetical Order)

8 TROY AIKMAN, Quarterback
6-3½, 217, Sr., Henryetta, OK

1988 — One of the nation's finest players, Aikman enjoyed a superb senior season, earning first-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation, The Sporting News and Football News in the process . . . Finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting, is a finalist for the "Coaches' Choice" Player of the Year Award and the Washington D.C. Quarterback Club Quarterback of the Year Award, has been nominated for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award (he finished second last season) and was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award . . . Six UCLA contests were televised by ABC this season and Aikman was selected the ABC-Chevrolet Player of the Game a record five times . . . Led a team with just three other returning offensive starters (two linemen and a tight end) to a 9-2 record and UCLA's fifth New Year's Day bowl game in seven years, setting numerous school records in the process . . . Concluded the regular season by compiling some very impressive numbers in the Bruins' 31-22 loss to USC . . . Throwing against the nation's No. 5 defensive unit (257.2 yards per game), Aikman completed a school-record 32 passes (three more than the former record) on 48 attempts for 317 yards and two touchdowns on an afternoon when the Bruin running game could generate just 73 net yards.

Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl having completed 209 of 327 yards (.639) for 2,599 yards and 23 touchdowns while tossing just eight interceptions . . . Passed for at least three touchdowns in a game five times this season and tied the UCLA record with four scoring aerials against Oregon State..Also ran for 86 net yards, including a career-high 43 yards against Washington State . . . On the year, he completed at least 59 per cent of his passes in nine of 11 games . . . In his final seven games, Aikman completed 151 of 236 passes (.640) for 1,784 yards (254.9 average) and 13 touchdowns . . . He passed for at least 280 yards in five of his last seven games (he averaged 304.5 yards in a four-game span) and passed for 270 or more yards six times this season . . . On the road, he completed 69 of 110 passes (.627) for 894 yards (223.5), seven touchdowns and just two interceptions this season.

Aikman set a school record with his 32 completions against USC and is the only player in school history to complete 27 or more passes in a game twice in a career . . . He is the only player to throw for over 315 yards three times in a season (325 versus Washington State, 322 versus California and 317 versus USC) and the only player to throw for over 315 yards four times in his career (he set a career high with 328 yards against Arizona State in 1987) . . . He now ranks fifth, sixth, seventh (tied) and ninth on UCLA's single-game passing list . . . He threw seven scoring passes of at least 40 yards, topped by a 69-yarder to David Keating, and led the Bruins on 28 touchdown drives of at least 60 yards, including 20 of 25 in the final eight games.

Aikman's 23 touchdown passes set a new school record, breaking the old mark of 21, set by Tom Ramsey in 1982 . . . His 209 completions tied Ramsey's school record and he still has the Mobil Cotton Bowl to play in . . . His 2,599 yards rank second on that single-season list (he had 2,527 last year), second only to Ramsey's record of 2,986 . . . His average of 236.3 yards per game is just behind Ramsey's record of 248.8 . . . Aikman's 2,685 yards total offense already rank second on that single-season list, behind Ramsey's record of 3,124 . . . Aikman, who finished second nationally in passing efficiency a year ago, ranks fourth this year with a rating of 149.0 (his mark of 163.6 last year was 10th highest in NCAA history) . . . On third downs, Aikman completed 64 of 101 passes (.634) for 812 yards and five touchdowns.

This season, Aikman accounted for 55 per cent of the Bruins' offense (2,685 of 4,881 yards) and 55.8 per cent (24 of 43) of the offensive touchdowns . . . Of Aikman's 122 possessions, 44.3 percent (54) produced touchdowns or field goals and 31.1 percent (38) resulted in touchdowns . . . He was the quarterback for 38 of UCLA's 43 offensive touchdowns and had a hand in 24 of those (23 throwing, one running).

Aikman's Bruin career spans 23 games and he has etched his name on several of UCLA's all-time lists while compiling a 19-4 won-lost record as a starter (8-2 on the road) . . . His totals show 387 completions on 600 attempts (.645) for 5,126 yards, 40 touchdowns and just 16 interceptions . . . His 387 completions rank second on that career list behind Tom Ramsey's record of 441 (Ramsey became a starter late in his freshman season) . . . His 5,126 passing yards rank second behind Ramsey and his 40 touchdown passes trail only Ramsey (50) on that career list . . . He also ranks third on the career total offense list (5,125) behind only Ramsey (6,255 in four years) and 1967 Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban (5,358 in three) . . . Aikman is averaging 222.8 yards total offense per game, well ahead of the career school record held by Dummit (204.6) . . . Besides record-holder Neuheisel (.683), Aikman (.645) is the only other member of the career top ten to complete better than 60 percent of his passes.

Aikman's UCLA career passing efficiency rating (regular-season games only) is 155.2, just shy of Jim McMahon's NCAA record of 156.9 and well ahead Ramsey's UCLA career mark of 143.9 . . . Including his Oklahoma statistics, his career rating (regular season only) of 149.7 ranks third in NCAA history on the chart of players a minimum of 400 completions (he had 33 completions as a Sooner) . . . Aikman's UCLA per-game career averages (including the 1987 Aloha Bowl) are 16.8 completions on 26.1 attempts for 222.9 yards and 1.74 touchdowns . . . He has thrown one touchdown pass every 15 attempts and one interception every 37.5 attempts while averaging 8.54 yards per attempt and 13.25 yards per completion . . . He has completed at least 59 percent of his passes in 18 of his 23 career games, has had at least one completion of 30 yards in 17 games and has thrown at least two touchdown passes 13 times, including one game of four TD tosses and six games of three.

Aikman is the only player in school history to complete at least 175 passes in two different seasons, the only player to pass for over 2,500 yards in two different seasons, the only player to pass for at least 17 touchdowns in two different seasons and the only player to pass for at least 315 yards in a game four times in his career . . . His 40 touchdown passes in two seasons broke Ramsey's record of 37 TD aerials in a two-year span. He has 13 career games over 200 yards, including the four over 315.

He has played in one bowl (1987 Aloha Bowl) at UCLA, completing 19 of 30 passes for 173 yards and one touchdown in the 20-16 victory over Florida . . . He also tossed two interceptions.

90 CORWIN ANTHONY, Tight End
6-2½, 225, So., Bakersfield, CA

1988 — One of a trio of tight ends utilized by the Bruins this season, Anthony started five games — three in place of injured Charles Arbuckle (Washington, Oregon State and California) and twice in a double-tight end formation (San Diego State and Stanford) . . . The team's No. 2 tight end, he was bothered by a sprained ankle, injured at California, over the latter half of the season but did make a career-high four catches for 46 yards against USC . . . Concluded the regular season with 15 receptions for 155 yards (10.3 average) and four touchdowns . . . Scored two of his touchdowns against Oregon State . . . Saw minimal action against Arizona the week after his injury, but managed to catch a 55-yard touchdown against Arizona . . . On that play, Troy Aikman tossed the ball to Anthony over the middle and he outran defenders to the end zone . . . Also scored against San Diego State . . . Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl with 29 career receptions after making 14 last year as a redshirt freshman.

81 CHARLES ARBUCKLE, Tight End
6-2, 233, Jr., Houston, TX

1988 — One of two UCLA starters who hail from the state of Texas, Charles is one of the most explosive tight ends in the nation when he is healthy . . . Missed four full games and most of a fifth with strained knee ligaments but still caught 16 passes and averaged 14.0 yards per grab . . . Was at his best in the 41-28 victory over Nebraska, making five receptions (one shy of his career high) for a career-high 100 yards and two touchdowns . . . Scored TDS of 57 and three yards in the first quarter to help the Bruins to a 28-0 lead after 15 minutes . . . On the 57-yard score, the longest play of his career, Arbuckle took a pass from Troy Aikman over the middle and just ran away from would-be tacklers . . . Was injured the following week against Long Beach State and did not return until the Washington State game . . . Made four catches for 64 yards in his first game back, including the 33-yarder in the final minute that put the Bruins on the six-yard line . . . Also made three grabs against USC . . . Over the last two seasons, he has played in 14 games, making 38 receptions.

95 RANDY AUSTIN, Tight End
6-2½, 227, So., Canyon Country, CA

1988 — Shifted from inside linebacker during Fall practice to improve depth at tight end, he ended up playing an important role in the team's fortunes due to the injuries at the position . . . Started two games (California and Arizona) and concluded the regular season with 15 receptions, tied with Corwin Anthony and one less than Charles Arbuckle among tight ends . . . Made a career-high five receptions for 67 yards against Washington State, including a 33-yarder to set up a second-quarter touchdown . . . Also made three catches at Arizona and two twice . . . Caught just one pass in his final three games . . . Made 20 tackles as an inside linebacker a year ago and scored a touchdown on a 38-yard run from punt formation.

21 ERIC BALL, Tailback
6-1½, 216, Sr., Ypsilanti, MI

1988 — UCLA's starting tailback throughout the season, Eric led the team in rushing with a career-high 781 yards . . . Ranked sixth in the Pacific-10 in rushing (78.1 average) and earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors in the process . . . Of his 164 carries, 31 produced first downs, 16 were for more than 10 yards and only six resulted in negative yards . . . Started the first nine games of the year but suffered a sprained ankle in the Oregon game . . . Did not play the following week against Stanford and saw brief action versus USC but did not carry the football . . . In addition to leading the team in rushing, he also tied split end Reggie Moore with six touchdowns . . . Ball was at his best early in the season, gaining at least 100 yards in each of the first four games and at least 75 in the first six and seven of the first eight . . . In those first four games, he carried the ball 85 times for 485 yards (5.7 average) and three scores . . . Ran for a season-high 148 yards (35 carries) in the 41-28 victory over Nebraska and also rushed for 122 yards against San Diego State, 108 against Long Beach State, 107 versus Washington, 85 against California, 78 versus Washington State and 77 versus Oregon State . . . His 56-yard touchdown run against Long Beach State (one of two he scored in that game) was the longest of his career . . . Also made a career-high eight catches this season . . . Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl ranked eighth on UCLA's career rushing list with 1,981 yards on 399 attempts (5.0 average) and needs just 19 yards to reach the 2,000-yard plateau . . . His 26 career touchdowns have moved him into fourth place on that list, one behind third-place Theotis Brown (27) . . . Eric also ranks ninth on the UCLA career scoring list with 156 points . . . Was hampered by injuries as a sophomore and junior, rushing for just 493 yards in those two years . . . As a redshirt freshman, he rushed for 227 yards and four touchdowns in the 1986 Rose Bowl to earn Player of the Game honors . . . The 227 yards still rank fourth on UCLA's single-game list while the four touchdowns tied the school single-game scoring record as well as the modern Rose Bowl mark.

18 HAROLD BARKATE, Punter
6-0, 190, Sr., Lancaster, CA

1988 — In his third season as the Bruins' regular punter, Barkate enjoyed another successful campaign in 1988 . . . Averaged 42.4 yards on his 33 attempts, just over his career average of 42.1 . . . Averaged 42.0 or more yards in seven of the 10 games in which he punted (did not have a kick against Long Beach State) . . . Kicked season-long 56-yard punts against San Diego State, California and USC and had at least one kick of at least 47 yards in seven of his 10 games . . . Averaged 48.0 yards on two kicks against Oregon State, 47.5 on two kicks against San Diego State, 47.0 on three kicks at California, 45.0 on four kicks against USC and on three kicks against Nebraska, 44.0 on four kicks at Arizona and 42.3 on three kicks at Washington . . . Averaged 45.3 yards through the Arizona contest (17 kicks), 37.5 in his next three games (12 kicks) and 45.0 against USC (four kicks) . . . Had 21 of his punts returned for 157 yards . . . Suffered blocked punts at Arizona and against Stanford . . . His 42.4 average ranks seventh on UCLA's single-season list, tied with his effort in 1986 . . . Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl with a career mark of 42.2, good enough for third place on UCLA's career list, and he ranks fourth in total punts (126) and total yards (5,315) . . . Averaged 41.7 yards a year ago and 42.4 in 1986.

30 BRIAN BROWN, Tailback
5-9, 185, So., Carson, CA

1988 — Missed the first five games of the year due to a pulled hamstring muscle suffered in Fall camp but made major contributions to the Bruin offense during the final six games of the regular season . . . Led the team in rushing in each of the final three games and finished the year as the team's No. 3 rusher with 354 yards (4.7 average) and four touchdowns on 75 carries . . . Started the final two games (Stanford and USC) . . . Came off the bench against Oregon when Eric Ball suffered a sprained ankle and led the squad with 102 yards rushing . . . With UCLA leading just 10-6 early in the fourth quarter, he broke a couple of tackles and raced 68 yards, UCLA's longest run of the season, for a touchdown . . . The following week against Stanford, he ran for a season-high 106 yards and both of UCLA's offensive touchdowns . . . Also led the Bruins with 59 yards on 12 carries in the season finale against USC . . . Had a 28-yard run to set up a field goal against the Trojans . . . Led the team with his 22.3 average on six kickoff returns and also caught eight passes for 61 yards . . . Recorded a season-long 32-yard kickoff return against Washington State . . . Last season, he rushed for a career-high 134 yards, including a 74-yard touchdown, against Arizona State and averaged 22.7 yards on 15 kickoff returns.

10 RON CARAGHER, Quarterback
6-2½, 198, Jr., Morgan Hill, CA

1988 — Saw very limited action as the No. 1 reserve behind Troy Aikman . . . Played one third-quarter series against San Diego State, completing four of five passes for 19 yards, including a two-yard touchdown strike to Corwin Anthony (the only TD pass thrown by a player other than Aikman this year) . . . Also played the first two series of the second half against Long Beach State but threw just one pass (intercepted), the final snap at California and the final two series at Arizona . . . Also carried the ball five times for 13 net yards . . . Did not throw a pass last season but carried the ball four times for 16 yards.

68 FRANK CORNISH, Center
6-4½, 265, Jr., Chicago, IL

1988 — The leader of the Bruin offensive line, Cornish did an outstanding job throughout the 1988 campaign . . . Started all 11 games and played virtually the entire way in every contest . . . Has established himself as one of the top centers, along with former All-Pros Dave Dalby and Randy Cross, ever to play at UCLA . . . Has been rewarded for his efforts by earning second-team All-America acclaim from The Sporting News and third-team honors from Football News . . . Also selected first-team All-Pac-10 by the league's coaches . . . A versatile performer who played guard in 1986, Frank never makes a bad snap, provides quarterback Troy Aikman with outstanding protection and does a fine job opening holes for the Bruin backs . . . Possesses the complete package for a center . . . Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl with a string of 23 consecutive starts.

22 MARK ESTWICK, Fullback
5-10, 223, So., La Canada, CA

1988 — In his first season as a starter, this former non-scholarship player did a fine job at fullback . . . In addition to blocking well for the tailbacks, he also concluded the regular-season as the team's No. 4 rusher with 227 yards and two touchdowns on 49 carries . . . Lost just one yard all season . . . Was especially effective on trap plays up the middle . . . Rushed for a career-high 65 yards on seven tries (9.3 average) against Stanford, including a career-long 37-yard fourth quarter run to set up the clinching touchdown . . . Also gained 43 yards on four attempts against Long Beach State and 27 yards at Washington . . . The leading receiver among the backs, Estwick caught nine passes for 52 yards and one touchdown . . . Last season as a redshirt freshman, he rushed for 60 yards and two touchdowns, averaging 5.0 yards per attempt.

9 MIKE FARR, Flanker
5-10½, 185, Jr., Birmingham, MI

1988 — Enjoyed the most productive season, reception wise, of any wide receiver in UCLA history in his first season as a starter and established himself as a 1989 Honors Candidate . . . Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl with a school single-season record 62 receptions for 652 yards to his credit . . . Ranked third in the Pacific-10 Conference and 15th nationally with his average of 5.6 receptions per game and earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention . . . Shattered the old mark of 48, set by Mike Sherrard (Dallas Cowboys) in 1983 and tied by Willie Anderson (Los Angeles Rams) last season, by 14 receptions . . . Of his 62 receptions, 41 produced first downs and 27 measured at least 11 yards, topped by a 32-yarder against Long Beach State and a 30-yarder at Arizona . . . Finished the regular-season with a flourish, making seven receptions against Stanford (54 yards) and a career-high nine catches (75 yards) against USC . . . Broke the old reception record with his third catch against Stanford . . . His nine receptions against the Trojans were just two shy of the Bruin single-game record . . . In addition to his big days against USC and Stanford, Farr also made eight grabs (88 yards) against Oregon State and seven for a career-high 114 yards against Long Beach State, giving him four games of at least seven receptions . . . In all, he made five or more receptions in eight of 11 games, at least three grabs in every contest and enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl with a string of nine straight games in which he has made four receptions . . . His record-setting season has increased his career total to 90 receptions (he entered 1988 with 28 catches to his credit) for 978 yards and one touchdown . . . Ranks sixth on UCLA's career receiving list and has a chance to break Sherrard's school record of 128 catches next season . . . In 1987, he was the team's third-leading receiver with 24 catches.

77 KEITH JACOBSON, Offensive Left Tackle
6-5½, 260, Jr., Mission Viejo, CA

1988 — Made a major contribution on the offensive line in his first season as an active player (he redshirted in 1977 after transferring from Saddleback Junior College) . . . Was the No. 1 reserve, coming in at left tackle and allowing tackle Bobby Menifield to shift to one of the other offensive line positions when necessary . . . Started three games (Washington State, Oregon and Stanford) when Menifield shifted to guard . . . Despite being bothered by a shoulder problem throughout the season, he did a nice job and established himself as a frontrunner for a starting position in 1989.

82 DAVID KEATING, Split End
6-0, 185, Jr., Salinas, CA

1988 — The Bruins' No. 3 wide receiver throughout the season, Keating enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl with 23 receptions (third on the squad) for 341 yards and five touchdowns . . . Ranks second only to Reggie Moore with his five TDs as well as with his 14.8 yards-per-catch average (among players with more than five receptions) . . . Made a career-high four receptions twice, grabbing four for 90 yards and one touchdown against Long Beach State and four for 61 yards against Washington State . . . Against Long Beach State, he teammed with Troy Aikman on a 69-yard touchdown pass, the Bruins' longest play from scrimmage of the year . . . Scored on a 21-yarder against Oregon State and also tallied versus Nebraska, Arizona and Oregon . . . On the year, caught at least three passes in five of 10 games in which he played (missed the California contest with an injury) . . . Had at least one reception nine times (did not catch a pass against USC when he was hampered by a hamstring injury) . . . Entered his junior season with just two receptions (20 yards) to his credit.

46 KIRK MAGGIO, Punter/Kicker/Holder
5-11½, 157, Jr., Glen Arm, MD

1988 — Served in a number of roles for the Bruins this season . . . For the third consecutive year, he filled the role of 'pooch' punter and averaged 34.7 yards on his three kicks . . . Against Washington State, his 40-yard kick was downed at the five-yard line and against Long Beach State, his punt to the 14-yard line was 'muffed' into the end zone, resulting in a touchback and a career-long 49-yard punt . . . Also served as the holder for all of the Bruin place kicks for the second straight year and did another fine job . . . His importance in this area is reflected in Alfredo Velasco's success (36 of 42 field goals in two seasons) . . . Tried to pass for two-point conversion at Oregon following a high snap but was unsuccessful . . . In addition to his other duties, Maggio also served as the team's kickoff man . . . Figures to take over the regular punting duties in 1989.

6-0, 202, Sr., La Canada, CA

1988 — Made a transition from quarterback to wide receiver during Spring drills and concluded the season as the team's No. 4 receiver among the wideouts . . . Made 10 receptions for 113 yards and one touchdown on the year . . . On UCLA's final offensive play of the regular season, Brendan caught a 26-yard scoring pass, the longest reception of his career, from Troy Aikman . . . On the day, he made three receptions for 48 yards . . . Also made two receptions against California and San Diego State . . . Caught five passes in the final three games . . . Also returned six kickoffs early in the season for an 18.8 average . . . Had a 25-yard return against Long Beach State and recorded four returns (73 yards) at Washington . . . Last season as a reserve quarterback, he completed 13 of 24 passes for 144 yards and rushed for 170 net yards.

67 BOBBY MENIFIELD, Offensive Left Tackle
6-1, 270, Sr., Los Angeles, CA

1988 — The only senior on the offensive line, Menifield proved to be an integral part of UCLA's success in his only season as a starter . . . A very physical performer who excels at drive blocking and was responsible for protecting quarterback Troy Aikman's blind side, he earned the starting left tackle position in Spring drills and held it throughout the season . . . In addition, he is UCLA's most versatile offensive lineman and served as the backup for the other four positions . . . Started three games (Washington State, Oregon and Stanford) at left guard when Rick Meyer was hampered by injuries . . . Also played at right guard when Lance Zeno was nicked up and reserve Scott Spalding was sidelined and saw action at center and right tackle as well.

71 RICK MEYER, Offensive Left Guard
6-6½, 264, Jr., Salinas, CA

1988 — A two-year starter, Meyer combined with center Frank Cornish to give the Bruins the nucleus of a solid offensive line, opening holes for the Bruin running backs throughout the season . . . One of the best players on the West Coast at his position, Meyer earned All-Pacific-10 honorable mention this year and should contend for national honors in 1989 . . . Started the first seven games of the season before suffering a pulled groin that kept him from starting the next three contests and sidelined him against Washington State . . . Returned to the starting lineup against USC . . . Has all the tools to be a great offensive lineman, including strength, speed and quickness . . . A fine student, he was selected a Honda Scholar-Athlete during one of this year's ABC telecasts.

4 REGGIE MOORE, Split End
5-9, 166, So., Houston, TX

1988 — In his first season as the Bruins' starting split end, Moore established himself as one of the top sophomore wide receivers in the nation and a player to watch for the next two years . . . Concluded the regular season ranked second to Mike Farr with 37 receptions and 617 yards while leading the team in touchdown receptions (six) and yards per reception (16.7) among players with more than five catches . . . His 37 receptions rank 12th on UCLA's single season list and second only to Mike Sherrard's 48 catches in 1983 among Bruin sophomores . . . His six receiving touchdowns match the totals of Willie Anderson in 1987 and Karl Dorrell in 1984 . . . The last Bruin to catch more touchdown passes was Jojo Townsell, who set a school record with 10 in 1982 . . . Was at his best against California, setting a career high with 122 receiving yards on a career-high tying six receptions . . . Also made six catches against Oregon State (96 yards) and Washington State (74 yards) and five receptions (105 yards) against Washington . . . His 48-yard touchdown reception from Troy Aikman with just 1:28 remaining in the game defeated Washington, 24-17 . . . Also scored on a 40-yarder against California . . . Caught a touchdown pass in four consecutive games (three through six) and tied Eric Ball with his six TDs . . . During a five-game stretch (Washington through Washington State), Moore made 26 receptions for 451 yards (17.3 average) and three touchdowns . . . On the year, he made at least three receptions in seven games . . . With two seasons remaining, he figures to develop into one of the most dangerous receivers in school history . . . As a redshirt freshman in 1987, he made two receptions for 32 yards . . . One of six players from Texas on the UCLA roster.

76 BILL PAIGE, Offensive Right Tackle
6-4½, 273, Jr., Lakewood, CO

1988 — A top reserve a year ago, Bill won the starting right tackle job in Spring drills and held it throughout the campaign . . . Started all 11 games this season and did a good job, combining with sophomore guard Lance Zeno to give the Bruins a strong duo on the right side . . . A hard-worker who is very physical at the point of attack, Paige also serves as the snapper for all of the field goal and PAT attempts and was outstanding throughout the year.

23 KEVIN SMITH, Fullback
6-3¾, 240, Fr., Oakland, CA

1988 — A youngster with a bright future, Smith saw limited action as the Bruins' No. 3 tailback . . . On the year, he carried the football just eight times for 33 net yards (4.1 average) . . . Carried twice for 17 yards against Stanford, including a 15-yard to the Cardinal one-yard line . . . Also carried three times for 11 yards against Long Beach State and had two attempts (four yards) against USC . . . Possesses outstanding size and good speed and figures to make an impact over the next three seasons.

1988 — A youngster with a bright future, Spalding did a fine job as the No. 1 reserve at right guard this season . . . Was hampered down the stretch by a sprained knee and did not see action in the final three games of the regular season (Oregon, Stanford and USC) . . . Up until that time, he combined with sophomore Lance Zeno to give the Bruins a promising one-two combination at right guard . . . Figures to push for one of the starting guard positions next season.

15 DANNY THOMPSON, Tailback
6-0, 201, Sr., Huntington Beach, CA

1988 — Filled a number of roles for the Bruins this season and made the most of his opportunities . . . Served as the team's No. 3 tailback for the year's first five games while Brian Brown was injured . . . Carried the ball in two games (San Diego State and Long Beach State) this season and gained a career-high 110 yards on 18 carries . . . His 6.1 average ranked second only to Shawn Wills' 6.6 average among Bruin backs . . . Ran for a career-high 55 yards (11 carries) against San Diego State and tied it with 55 yards on seven attempts against Long Beach State . . . His 42-yard run against the 49ers was the longest of his career . . . Also served as a 'zoom' man (tight end in motion) throughout the campaign . . . Caught three passes for four yards but scored three touchdowns — Long Beach State (one yard), Arizona (two yards) and Washington State (one yard) . . . His TDs against Long Beach State and Arizona were UCLA's first scores of the game . . . Last year in the Aloha Bowl, he caught a five-yard tipped touchdown pass (his only reception of the year) on his back to give UCLA a 17-10 lead en route to a 20-16 victory . . . Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl with a career rushing average of 5.6 yards.

25 ALFREDO VELASCO, Place Kicker
5-10½, 185, Jr., Burbank, CA

1988 — Enjoyed a banner season, earning second-team All-Pacific-10 honors and established himself as an All-America candidate for 1989 . . . Shattered the myth that he couldn't convert long field goal attempts by converting four of five attempts of at least 45 yards, including field goals of 53 and 50 yards . . . On the year, Alfredo converted 16 of 18 attempts, including 10 straight between the Washington game and the USC contest, and made 12 of his last 13 tries . . . In the final four regular-season games, Velasco was successful on nine of 10 attempts . . . Kicked a 53-yarder, the longest of his career, at Oregon and added a 50-yarder at Arizona . . . Was three-for-three against Washington State and three-of-four versus USC . . . Also converted all 41 of his PATs, giving him a total of 89 points, the sixth-highest single-season total in school history . . . His 8.1 average led the Pac-10 and ranked 21st nationally . . . Since taking over as the team's regular place kicker prior to the 1987 season, Velasco has been successful on 36 of 42 field goals and 89 of 90 PATs (he is 91 of 92 in his career) . . . For his career, Velasco is 26 of 26 inside 40 yards, 31 of 32 inside 44 yards and five of 10, including four of five this year, from at least 45 yards . . . His 36 career field goals rank No. 2 on UCLA's career list, trailing two-time All-American John Lee (Velasco wears the same uniform number and has the same roommate as Lee), and his career percentage (.857) is superior to Lee's (.850) . . . In addition, his 199 career points rank fourth on that career list behind Lee (390), Gaston Green (248) and Gary Beban (214) . . . Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl with a string of 48 consecutive PATs dating back to last season . . . In 1987, he scored 108 points, second-most in school history, by making 20 of 24 field goals and 48 of 49 PATs in his first year as a regular.

37 SHAWN WILLS, Tailback
5-11, 180, Fr., Hanford, CA

1988 — The only true freshman to see action for the Bruins this season, Wills played an integral role in UCLA's fortunes, especially early in the season, and established himself as a star of the future . . . While Brian Brown was sidelined with a pulled hamstring for the year's first five games, Shawn sparkled as the team's No. 2 tailback . . . In that five-game span, he carried the football 53 times for 394 yards, averaging 7.4 yards per attempt, and scored five touchdowns . . . In the last six games, he carried the ball just 23 times — 14 in the final two . . . Enters the Mobil Cotton Bowl as the team's No. 2 rusher with 502 yards on 76 carries and his 6.6 average is the best on the squad . . . Needs just 15 yards to break Gaston Green's school record for most rushing yards by a true freshman (516 in 1984) . . . Lost just six yards rushing all year . . . Rushed for a career-high 97 yards against Long Beach State and added 92 against Oregon State and 81 versus San Diego State . . . Against Nebraska, he carried just four times for 73 yards, including a 50-yard first-quarter touchdown on which he broke several tackles . . . Also scored on a 30-yard run against San Diego State and on an 11-yard jaunt at Washington . . . Led the team in rushing twice (Oregon State and Arizona) . . . Averaged 6.0 yards or better in five of the first seven games and averaged 5.8 in a sixth . . . Led the team with 18 kickoff returns, averaging 20.1 yards per attempt . . . 79 LANCE ZENO, Offensive Right Guard
6-4, 260, So., Fountain Valley, CA

1988 — In his first season as a starter, Zeno demonstrated the form that made him a highly-recruited star as a prep senior . . . One of the stronger linemen to play at UCLA in the last decade, he possesses the quickness and agility needed to be an outstanding pulling guard . . . A versatile athlete, he can also play center when necessary, having practiced at that position during his redshirt year (1986) . . . Started all 11 games this season, despite a bothersome right elbow that hampered his effectiveness at times, and figures to be a fixture for the next two years.

OTHER OFFENSIVE PLAYERS TO WATCH

Junior flanker LAURENCE BURKLEY (89) averaged 17.2 yards on his five receptions and 20.0 yards on two flanker reverses. Scored UCLA's first offensive touchdown of the year on a 43-yard pass from Troy Aikman against San Diego State. It was the first reception of his career. Had a 23-yard run against Stanford . . . Redshirt freshman split end PAUL RICHARDSON (87) averaged 31.7 yards on his three receptions. Caught a 52-yard first-quarter touchdown pass against California and also made a 26-yard reception on a third-quarter scoring drive . . . Senior flanker FRITZ JORDAN (85) missed the latter half of the year after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery . . . Redshirt freshman JIM BONDS (6) and sophomore BOBBY SAN JOSE (17) alternated as the team's No. 3 quarterback throughout the year. Bonds completed four of seven passes for 42 yards and rushed for 10 more while San Jose completed all three of his attempts for 35 yards . . . Among the young offensive linemen who saw action during the year were sophomore tackle KIPP KJELDGAARD (63) and redshirt freshmen JEFF BAILEY (61), JAMES RAE (73), MARK WILDER (69) and JOHN ZILINSKAS (59). Wilder, a tackle, was also prepped as a backup tight end for the Arizona game, while Bailey was listed as the backup center and Rae and Zilinskas saw limited action at guard.

1988 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 — September 3 at Rose Bowl
UCLA 59, San Diego State 6

This game was originally scheduled for Sept. 24. But when Nebraska decided to play in the Kickoff Classic and moved up its Utah State contest, UCLA would have been playing the Cornhuskers on Sept. 10 as its opener. But it would have been Nebraska's third game of the season.

So the Bruins moved up the San Diego State contest to help UCLA prepare for its upcoming battle with the Huskers. The plan worked as UCLA's offense and defense dominated in a 59-6 blitzing of the Aztecs.

Senior quarterback Troy Aikman completed 13 of 17 passes, with no interceptions, for 155 yards and three touchdowns, tying his career high. Senior tailback Eric Ball rushed for 122 yards on 17 carries, at the time his third best effort as a Bruin.

Defensively, UCLA limited SDSU to just 234 yards, including only 37 on the ground.

UCLA's kicking game was also successful, highlighted by senior Darryl Henley's 89-yard punt return to open the Bruin scoring in the first quarter. Last season, in the opener against San Diego State, Henley again returned a punt for a score, that one for 74-yards.

GAME 2 — September 10 at Rose Bowl
UCLA 41, Nebraska 28

In what will always be remembered as one of the greatest victories in UCLA football history, the Bruins defeated then-No. 2 ranked Nebraska 41-28 in an ABC-TV nationally televised game played before 84,086 at the Rose Bowl.

The win represented several milestones for UCLA football. Terry Donahue recorded his 100th career and school win, making him 100-36-7 in 12-plus seasons at Westwood. The attendance was the largest UCLA regular season crowd in the Rose Bowl against an opponent other than USC.

On offense, defense and in the kicking game, particularly in the first quarter, UCLA overpowered the usually physical Cornhuskers. In the first period alone, UCLA picked up 28 points and 344 total yards, while shutting out Nebraska and limiting the Huskers to just 154 yards. It was the most points scored against a Tom Osborne-coached Nebraska team and the most points against the Cornhuskers since 1968 when Oklahoma defeated Nebraska 47-0 in Norman.

Bruin senior quarterback Troy Aikman firmly established himself as the early top contender for the Heisman Trophy. He completed 13 of 22 passes, with one intercepted, for 205 yards and three touchdowns. His favorite target in the first quarter was junior tight end Charles Arbuckle who caught two touchdowns passes, including a 57-yarder, and for the game had five receptions for 100 yards.

Senior tailback Eric Ball gained 148 yards on 35 carries (four short of the school record) for his second-best effort ever as a Bruin (he gained 227 yards in the 1986 Rose Bowl.)

GAME 3 — September 17 at Rose Bowl
UCLA 56, Long Beach State 3

As expected, No. 2 ranked UCLA rolled over out-manned Long Beach State 56-3 before 42,464 at the Rose Bowl.

The game was really over at halftime as the Bruins led 14-0 at the end of the first quarter and 42-0 at intermission.

UCLA had 662 total yards and 33 first downs, the second highest totals ever in Bruin football history.

Bruin senior quarterback Troy Aikman only played in the first half but still completed 17 of 25 passes, with no interceptions, for 272 yards and three touchdowns. He's now thrown 26 touchdown passes in just 15 career games, putting him No. 3 on the all-time Bruin list.

Tailbacks, senior Eric Ball and freshman Shawn Wills, continued to display a strong Bruin running attack. Ball rushed for 108 yards on 11 carries and scored twice, including a 56-yard dash in the first quarter. It was Ball's third-straight, 100+ yard game of the season. Wills added a career-high 97 yards on 16 carries and scored once.

Junior flanker Mike Farr led all receivers, equaling his career-best with seven catches and set a career-high with 114 yards.

UCLA 24, Washington 17

Last-minute heroics by senior quarterback Troy Aikman led UCLA to a come-from-behind, Pacific-10 opening win at Washington, 27-14.

The stage was set for a great Pac-10 opener and that's exactly what it was. UCLA was 3-0, ranked No. 2 and the Huskies were 3-0 and ranked No. 17. The game was played before an ABC-TV national audience and a soldout crowd of 71,224.

UCLA trailed 17-10 entering the fourth period, but an 11-yard scoring run by Bruin freshman tailback Shawn Wills and junior kicker Alfredo Velasco's extra point tied the game at 17-all with 12:44 left to play.

After foiling a Washington fake field goal attempt from the UCLA 30 yard line with 6:18 left and forcing the Huskies to punt with 2:41 left to play, the Bruins took over on their own 31 yard line.

Three plays later, UCLA was faced with a third and nine from its own 42 yard line. Aikman scrambled right for 10 yards and the first.

On the next play, the senior Heisman Trophy candidate calmly dropped back and passed to sophomore receiver Reggie Moore who was running a down and in pattern. Moore then outraced Washington's Art Malone and ran 48 yards for the touchdown. Velasco's extra point gave the Bruins a 24-17 lead with only 1:22 left.

Washington did march to the UCLA 30 yard line. But with :03 left, Husky junior quarterback Cary Conklin's pass was batted down in the endzone by Bruin senior cornerback Darryl Henley.

The win marked UCLA's first victory in Seattle since 1978 and it was the Bruins' second straight Pac-10 opening win. In 1987 at the Rose Bowl, the Bruins opened the conference with a 34-24 victory over Arizona. Before that win over Arizona, UCLA had not won a league opener since 1981.

GAME 5 — October 8 at Rose Bowl
UCLA 38, Oregon State 21

UCLA senior quarterback Troy Aikman continued his assault on the 1988 Heisman Trophy by tying a school record with four touchdown passes and leading the Bruins to a 38-21 victory over Oregon State.

Aikman's first scoring passes were seven-yards to sophomore tight end Corwin Anthony and 21-yards to junior split end David Keating in the first quarter that helped the Bruins to a 21-0 first half lead.

Then in the fourth period, when OSU had pulled to 24-14, Aikman put the game away with two more scoring tosses, six-yards to sophomore split end Reggie Moore and one-yard to Anthony.

Aikman's statistics for the game were 24 completions in 36 attempts (both career highs at the time), with two intercepted, for 288 yards and the four scores.

Thanks to Aikman's success, Bruin receivers also had a good day. Junior flanker Mike Farr caught eight passes for 88 yards and Moore had six receptions for 96 yards and one score.

Defensively for the Bruins, senior outside linebacker Carnell Lake had a fine day. He contributed four unassisted tackles, including a quarterback sack, along with three stops behind the line for a loss of 11 yards. He also had a fumble recovery and pass broken up.

GAME 6 — October 15 in Berkeley
UCLA 38, California 21

UCLA used two rushing touchdowns to break open a tight first half and spoiled California's first homecoming in 32 years, beating the Bears 38-21.

Leading just 17-10 midway through the second quarter, the Bruins took a 24-10 lead into the lockerroom at halftime when senior quarterback Troy Aikman scored on a one-yard run with :16 left in the first half.

UCLA then broke the game open early in the third period, when senior running back Eric Ball scored on a seven-yard run with 6:37 played. Alfredo Velasco's extra point gave the Bruins a commanding 31-10 lead.

But the Bruins used more than just running the ball to defeat Cal for the 17th straight time. Heisman Trophy candidate Aikman turned in a stellar performance, completing 21 of 32 passes, with no interceptions, for 322 yards (six shy of his career high) and two touchdowns. Aikman also scrambled for a Bruin career-high (at the time) 30 yards and his touchdown.

Sophomore split end Reggie Moore tied his career high with six receptions and scored a touchdown his fourth straight game while junior flanker Mike Farr caught four passes.

The contest also marked the return of UCLA sophomore running back Brian Brown. Brown, who missed the Bruins' first five games with a hamstring injury, rushed for 31 yards and a touchdown and 30 more on four receptions.

UCLA, with Notre Dame beating Miami, Fla., was named the No. 1 team in the U.S. on Oct. 17 and prepared for the next Pacific-10 contest at Arizona.

GAME 7 — October 22 in Tucson
UCLA 24, Arizona 3

An all-out effort by UCLA's defense and three touchdown passes from Bruin senior quarterback Troy Aikman led UCLA to a 24-3 victory over Arizona at Tucson. It was the Bruins' first defense of their No. 1 ranking.

The Wildcats entered the contest as the Pacific-10's No. 1 ranked rushing unit, but UCLA held Arizona's run and shoot offense to just 219 offensive yards, including only 104 yards rushing.

The Bruin defense would have recorded a shut-out and halted Arizona's 186-consecutive game scoring streak, but with :55 left to play, Doug Pfaff connected on a 35-yard field goal. UCLA holds the NCAA mark for consecutive scoring games at 200, including the win over Arizona.

Defensively, UCLA was led by its safeties, sophomore Eric Turner and freshman Matt Darby. Turner had 11 tackles, including eight unassisted and Darby had 10 stops, with four tackles for losses.

On offense, Aikman completed 20 of 29 passes, with one interception, for 283 yards and three touchdowns. Aikman has now thrown 19 season touchdown passes, three short of breaking the school record set by Tom Ramsey in 1982.

GAME 8 — October 29 at Rose Bowl
Washington State 34, UCLA 30

Washington State, taking advantage of its own high-powered offense and numerous UCLA turnovers and penalties, rallied from a 21-point third quarter deficit to upset the No. 1 ranked and previously unbeaten Bruins, 34-30.

UCLA appeared to be holding a commanding 27-6 lead with about 13 minutes left in the third quarter when the game began turning in the Cougars' favor.

After the Bruins took their 21 point lead, Washington State scored 21 unanswered points during the remainder of the third stanza.

Cougar junior quarterback Timm Rosenbach led the way, completing two scoring passes to junior Tim Stallworth, of 15 and 81 yards.

Late in the fourth quarter, with WSU holding a 34-30 lead, Bruin senior Darryl Henley set up UCLA's last-ditch drive with a 31-yard punt return, down to the WSU 39 yard line.

Bruin senior quarterback Troy Aikman then completed a 33-yard pass to junior tight end Charles Arbuckle, down to the Cougar six yard line. UCLA was now faced with a first and goal situation from WSU's six yard line and no time outs.

Aikman's first pass was thrown away to stop the clock. But his next three attempts, for junior David Keating, freshman Maury Toy and again for Keating all fell incomplete and the Bruins were no longer the No. 1 team in the country.

GAME 9 — November 5, 1988 in Eugene
UCLA 16, Oregon 6

UCLA overcame a sluggish offensive afternoon with a tough defensive effort to stop the Oregon Ducks 16-6 at Eugene.

It was an important victory for the Bruins as they rebounded from their loss the previous week to Washington State 34-30 in the Rose Bowl. At that time, the Bruins were ranked No. 1 in the country and entered the game with Oregon ranked No. 6.

The score was knotted at 3-all at halftime, but a third quarter, 11-yard touchdown pass from Bruin senior quarterback Troy Aikman to junior receiver David Keating gave UCLA a 10-3 lead entering the final stanza. The touchdown pass was Aikman's 21st of the season, tying a Bruin single-season mark.

UCLA wrapped up the win in the fourth period when sophomore running back Brian Brown, playing for the injured Eric Ball, sprinted 68 yards for a touchdown. UCLA's extra point was no good but the Bruins still recorded the 16-6 victory.

Oregon was without starting quarterback Bill Musgrave and the Bruin defense took advantage of that situation. UCLA limited Oregon to just 247 total yards, including only 95 yard rushing. In the first half alone, the Bruin defense held Oregon to just three points, nine first downs and 105 yards.

Leading the UCLA defensive charge was senior nose guard Jim Wahler, with nine total tackles, including seven unassisted and four tackles behind the line for a loss of 10 yards.

GAME 10 — November 12 at Rose Bowl
UCLA 27, Stanford 17

UCLA junior defensive tackle Mike Lodish provided the big scoring play that rallied UCLA to a 27-17 win over Stanford and set the stage for the upcoming UCLA-USC contest.

With the Bruins trailing 17-13 in the middle of the third quarter, Stanford was faced with a third and nine from its own 25 yard line.

As Cardinal quarterback Brian Johnson dropped back, set and cocked his arm to pass, Lodish rushed in from the right side. He tipped the ball out of Johnson's hand, caught it in mid-air and ran 17 yards for a spectacular touchdown. Alfredo Velasco's extra point gave the Bruins a 20-17 lead with 5:22 left in the third period, the first Bruin lead since late in the first half.

UCLA added an insurance score with 6:09 left to play, when sophomore tailback Brian Brown ran from two yards out and with Velasco's extra point, the Bruins led 27-17.

For the third game in the last four contests, UCLA's defense provided the winning formula. Stanford was held to just 193 total yards, including a minus one yard rushing. The Bruins also recovered a fumble and intercepted five passes.

With the win, UCLA, now 9-1 overall and ranked No. 6 in the country and 6-1 in the Pacific-10, in second place, looked ahead to a Nov. 19 meeting with archrival USC in the Rose Bowl. The winner would be conference champ and represent the league in the Rose Bowl against Michigan.

GAME 11 — November 19 at Rose Bowl
USC 31, UCLA 22

In the battle for the 1988 Pacific-10 championship, USC rode three first-half touchdowns to a 31-22 victory at the Rose Bowl.

Played before 100,741, that attendance figure was the ninth largest Bruin crowd of all-time, the third best UCLA-USC mark and UCLA's largest regular-season attendance in the Rose Bowl.

First half scoring, or lack of it really hurt the Bruin cause. UCLA's first three scoring opportunities all resulted in Alfredo Velasco field goals of 46, 27 and 25 yards.

But while the Bruins were kicking field goals, USC was scoring touchdowns and when Peete, who was felled all week with the measles, scored on a one-yard rush late in the second period, the Trojans led 21-9.

For UCLA, senior quarterback Troy Aikman had a Heisman type of afternoon. He completed 32 of 48 passes, with just one interception, for 317 yards and two touchdowns. Peete countered by completing 16 of 28 passes for 189 yards and one score.

UCLA finished the regular season at 9-2-0 overall and 6-2 in the Pacific-10, in second place. The Bruins now prepare to meet Southwest Conference champ Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 2.
